

ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION & DISPUTE RESOLUTION SYMPOSIUM

What Happens Before and After International Arbitration?

WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF LAW
IN ST. LOUIS, MO

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 2020 • 1-6 PM

PROGRAM

- Keynote Address by Mahnaz Malik, Twenty Essex
- Session 1: *Tips & Tricks: Strategic Considerations for Successful Arbitration
- Session 2: *Challenging and Enforcing Arbitration Awards
- Practicum: *Mock Appellate Argument: Compelling Arbitration Under U.S. Law
- Networking Reception
- Chaired by M. Imad Khan, Winston & Strawn LLP

4.2 Missouri CLE credit hours

Regular Registration: $100 | Alumni: $75 | Register at law.wustl.edu/harris
(includes CLE certificate and materials, parking, and refreshments)

Generously sponsored by:

WINSTON
& STRAWN
LLP

the Claro group resolve with clarity

Washington University
School of Law
ILS
International Law Society

USA&M
United States Arbitration & Mediation

CONFIRMED SPEAKERS

Eric Bloom, Winston & Strawn LLP
Paul Brooks, The Claro Group
Heaven Chee, Yetter Coleman LLP
Paul Dempsey, Therium Capital Management
Nicole Dolenz, Orrick Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP
Madaline George, Washington University School of Law
Miloš Ivković, International Arbitrator
Alex Kaplan, International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes
M. Imad Khan, Winston & Strawn LLP

Ben Love, Reed Smith LLP
Mahnaz Malik, Twenty Essex
Steven "Cash" Nickerson, AKKA Technologies
Ann Ryan Robertson, Locke Lord LLP
Leila Nadya Sadat, Washington University School of Law
Victoria Sahani, Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law
Nicole Silver, Greenberg Traurig LLP
Frédéric Sourgens, Washburn University Law School
Nancy Staudt, Washington University School of Law

Supporting organizations:

INTERNATIONAL CENTRE
FOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION®

NATIONAL ACADEMY OF ARBITRATORS

