

I-20/DS-2019
Instructions

***Please carefully read the following information*****

1. A bank letter or bank statement showing that you have enough funds to support your studies is required to process your I-20 or DS-2019. This must be in English or accompanied by a notarized translation. Please see the attached Tuition and Estimated Living Expenses Estimate for International Students form for the amount your financial documents need to show.
2. Your financial documents must be issued/dated within six months of submitting them to WUSTL. In other words, if your financial documents are more than six months old, then they are considered invalid for I-20/DS-2019 purposes.
3. If the bank statement or bank letter is not in your name, we will also need a statement of financial support signed and dated by your sponsor. Please complete the financial support statement that is attached.
4. To ensure the authenticity of the bank letter, it must be printed on bank letterhead and be stamped by the bank. Bank statements can be accepted IF they are certified by a bank official by signature and a stamp/seal. Please refer to the enclosed International Student Financial Policy document for more information.
5. The currency must be clearly stated on the bank statement or bank letter and must also clearly show the funds available.
6. Funds on the bank statement or bank letter must be available for immediate withdrawal. In other words, funds in the form of property and investments cannot be accepted. If your bank statement or letter includes an expiration date, it must be on or before August 1, 2021.

***It is important to note that photographs and screenshots will not be accepted. Additionally, we reserve the right to require original documentation.

*** IMPORTANT: If you have any dependents that you are bringing to the United States to live with you, your Letter of Credit must reflect that you have funds available to pay for your dependents' living expenses as well as your own expenses.

First Dependent	$9,000
Each Additional Dependent	$5,000

Initial Expense Estimates for Graduate Students

Students should have sufficient funds to pay for rental and utility deposits, and household furnishings. The figures below indicate the approximate range of those expenses.

First month's rent and rental deposit:	$900.00 - $2,400.00
Utility and phone deposits:	$170.00 - $340.00
Household furnishings:	$350.00 - $1,850.00

The budget outlines above cover only minimal essential expenditures. Items such as clothing, recreation, and incidentals are variables, and the cost of travel to St. Louis is not included.

Financial Documentation for International Students

*****Please read this form carefully*******

Before a certificate of eligibility can be issued for a newly admitted student, the U.S government requires that Washington University has evidence of readily available and sufficient funding.

F-1 students (I-20) must submit financial documentation to cover the cost of the first year of the student's program. The Office for International Students and Scholars also requires a completed Declaration and Certification of Finances (DCOF) to provide evidence that students have made a plan for their funding for the duration of their program.

J-1 students (DS-2019) must submit financial documentation showing access to sufficient funds to cover the entire length of the program.

Proof of funding may come in the form of a bank statement, bank letter, or letter detailing a scholarship or corporate sponsorship. If a student has a sponsor providing funds, a commitment of support from the sponsor will also be required.

****It is important to note that photographs and screenshots will not be accepted. Additionally, we reserve the right to require original documentation.

Bank Statement or Bank Letter Requirements

All documents from a financial institution must include the following information:

- ✓ A date which is no older than 6 months from the date the documents were received by Graduate and International Programs.
- ✓ The account holder's full name in English. Initials only or first name and last initial will not be accepted.
- ✓ For F-1s: The total amount listed per account or a sum of all the accounts which equals or exceeds the cost of the first year tuition and living expenses.
- ✓ For J-1s: The total amount listed per account or a sum of all the accounts which equals or exceeds the tuition and living expenses for the entire length of the program.
- ✓ All bank letters must be printed in English and on official bank letterhead or contain an official logo, stamp, seal, or signature.

Commitment of Support Requirements

We prefer sponsors use the commitment support template. Other documentation may be accepted – or required – as outlined below:

- ✓ Family Sponsors
  - Please encourage sponsors to use the commitment of support Template. If the student chooses to have their sponsor write a letter of support, that letter must include all of the same information as the OISS template.
- ✓ Individual Sponsors
  - Individuals sponsoring an international student (Ex: housing free of charge or tuition support) must complete the I-134 which can be found here: <http://www.uscis.gov/sites/default/files/files/form/i-134.pdf>
- ✓ School Sponsors
  - Students sponsored by their home university must have a letter from the school stating their intent to financially support the student, the amount of the support, and the dates that support will be provided.
- ✓ Corporate Sponsors
  - Students sponsored by a business (foreign or domestic) must have a letter on company letterhead which states their intentions to sponsor the international student's education using business funds, the amount of the support, and the dates that support will be provided.
- ✓ Private Scholarships
  - Students who receive their funding through a private scholarship must provide a letter from the sponsor stating the intention to sponsor the student, the amount of support, and the dates that support will be provided.

Unacceptable Financial Documentation

Please be aware that the following items remain unacceptable as proof of financial support:

- Retirement Accounts
  - ✓ These accounts are subject to taxes and a plethora of laws which would greatly reduce the amount of money received compared to what appears on the document.
- Proof of valuable property
  - ✓ Property cannot be easily sold and the value is subject to many outside factors.
- Tax and income statements
  - ✓ Tax and income statements show only how much money a person made over a given time or their projected income, not the amount which is currently liquid.
- Photographs or screenshots of bank statements or letters
  - ✓ We will not issue I-20s/DS-2019s based on photos of bank documents taken with a cell phone or other camera.

Acceptable and Unacceptable Financial Documents Overview

The title of these financial documents can vary from bank to bank. If a document is submitted and the title is not listed below, feel free to reach out to the Graduate and International Programs Office.
